(Knoxville, TN) In a Brown Bag Lecture on June 25, noted genealogist Dr. George K. Schweitzer will identify sources for German genealogical research to trace your ancestor through the maze of emigration, immigration records, and migration routes through the United States, as well as techniques for identifying the German town of origin. The author of 22 books on genealogy and a frequent lecturer, Dr. George K. Schweitzer is a professor of chemistry at the University of Tennessee and member of the ETHS Board of Directors.

The program is sponsored by 21st Mortgage and is free and open to the public. The lecture will begin at noon at the East Tennessee History Center, 601 S. Gay Street, Knoxville. Guests are invited to bring a “Brown Bag” lunch and enjoy the lecture. Soft drinks will be available. For more information on the lecture, exhibitions, or museum hours, call 865-215-8824 or visit the website at www.EastTNHistory.org.
